

Your Site's Privacy Policy

Last Modified on 04/29/2022 10:56 pm EDT

As per our Supply Policies, Freestar and the partners we work with require every website to have a privacy policy with key information included.

Where should the Privacy Policy be linked?

Your website's privacy policy should be linked within plain view on your website's home page. Typically, this is linked in either the footer or the main menu and contains the word "Privacy". Demand partners look for this, and if they cannot find it, your website may not be approved for that partner.

What should be included in a Privacy Policy?

Your privacy policy must include:

- A link to Freestar's Privacy Policy.
- Clear definitions of the use of third-party cookies and data tracking for advertising purposes
- An opt-out link as described at NAI Consumer Opt-Out
- Compliance with all applicable regulatory requirements, such as the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) for EU users, CCPA for California Users, and any other privacy regulations

Your privacy policy must also be clearly written for the website it is placed on and the company that owns the website (the domain and company name must match the one Freestar is working with).

Example Privacy Policy

The following example privacy policy may be used on your website by replacing the (COMPANY NAME) and (DOMAIN NAME) references to match your company and domain. The example below only includes the information Freestar requires and does not cover all legal obligations you may need to include in your privacy policy. The example does not include all information required for GDPR, CCPA, and other privacy regulations. You are responsible for ensuring your privacy policy is up to date with all current regulations.

If you already have a privacy policy that contains the required information you do not need to change or replace it.

Privacy policy example

This is (COMPANY NAME) Privacy Policy for (DOMAIN NAME). This document explains (COMPANY NAME) policies for the collection, use, and disclosure of personal information on (DOMAIN NAME). This privacy policy deals with personally-identifiable information (referred to as "data" below) that may be collected by this site.

As on many websites, the site editor may automatically receive general information that is contained in server log files, such as your IP address, and cookie information. USE OF DATA

Data may be used to customize and improve your user experience on this site. Efforts will be made to prevent your data from being made available to third parties unless

(i) provided for otherwise in this Privacy Policy;

COOKIES

Like many websites, this website sets and uses cookies to enhance your user experience — to remember your personal settings, for instance. Advertisements may display on this website and, if so, may set and access cookies on your computer; such cookies are subject to the privacy policy of the parties providing the advertisement. However, the parties providing the advertising do not have access to this site's cookies. These parties usually use non-personally-identifiable or anonymous codes to obtain information about your visits to this site.

For more information about this type of online advertising, about cookies, and about how to turn this feature off, please visit this link.

Please note that turning off advertising cookies won't mean that you are not served any advertising, merely that it will not be tailored to your interests.
